

The Man by the Pool

Bible Verse

I have given you an example: just as I have done, you also must do. John 13:15

Did You Know?

This month we have been reading stories about people Jesus met. We began the month with a story about a man Jesus healed. In today's Bible story, Jesus met another man whom he healed. As was the case with the man with the withered hand, Jesus cured the man in today's story on a Sabbath.

There was a pool in Jerusalem called Bethesda. At times, the water in the pool would stir, probably the result of an underground spring. People believed that when the water stirred, the first people in the water would be healed. Because of this belief, people in need of healing would wait beside the pool. When the water bubbled, people would push their way to the pool to get in the water first or to put their friends in the water first.

When Jesus walked by the pool, he saw a man who had been sick for 38 years. From the context, it can be inferred that the man was unable to walk; however, the man's particular ailment is not described. When Jesus asked the man if he wanted to get well, the man explained that he had no one to help him into the pool. Every time he tried to make it to the pool, someone else got there first. By the man's response, it is obvious that he did not know who Jesus was and didn't realize Jesus had the power to heal him. In fact, when the Jewish authorities later asked him about what had happened, he described Jesus as "the man who made me well."

After Jesus healed the man, the story took a turn. It changed from a healing story to a conflict story. We discover that the healing took place on the Sabbath. Jewish laws forbidding work on the Sabbath were strict. When the healed man was asked by the Jewish authorities why he was carrying his mat, the reason for the question was that carrying your bed was considered work, and therefore not allowed on the Sabbath. When the Jewish authorities discovered the man had been healed, they immediately became upset because Jesus had healed the man on the Sabbath. The authorities were more concerned with being upset with Jesus for breaking Sabbath law than they were with celebrating that a man who had been sick for 38 years had been healed!

Today is the last Sunday of the mission offering raising money for UMCOR Armenia. Celebrate the good work that will be done because of the children's offerings.
